

UNIVERSITY OF
KWAZULU-NATAL™
INYUVESI
YAKWAZULU-NATALI

THE MANDELA RHODES
COMMUNITY

The Mandela Rhodes Community in partnership with The Corporate Relations Division proudly presents the 9TH annual

CONVERSATIONS FOR CHANGE

“Will we breathe again? The politics of reimagining a post-Covid world”

Date: 11 December 2020 | Time: 16h00 – 18h00 (GMT +2) South Africa Standard Time

RSVP VIA ZOOM HERE

Enquiries: sibran@ukzn.ac.za

Anton I. Botha, former organisational psychologist at the United Nations in New York

Anton I. Botha is a People Strategist and has worked with the United Nations Common System for the past decade including for the United Nations Secretariat, the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), and the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF). He is also a co-founder of Anthro-Analytics, a consulting firm. He is a registered Industrial and Organizational Psychologist and has received numerous awards including: the UN Secretary General's Award for Innovation, the Fulbright Scholarship, and the Leverhulme Doctorial Scholarship. He is currently reading towards his PhD in Applied Social Sciences at Durham University in the UK and is a self-professed nerd with a love for travel, food, wine, history, literature, SCUBA diving, and fun facts! He received the Mandela Rhodes Scholarship in 2008.

Cynthia Ayeza, Ugandan writer and publisher

Cynthia Ayeza is a writer, publisher, and communications consultant. She is committed to tackling issues that affect women and girls. These days, she keeps a keen eye on politics in her home country, Uganda, while studying towards an MFA in Creative Writing at Emerson College in Boston, USA. Cynthia received the Mandela Rhodes Scholarship in 2008.

Zinhle ka'Nobuhlaluse, PhD candidate at Pennsylvania State University

Zinhle ka'Nobuhlaluse (formally Manzini) is a dual-title PhD Candidate in Philosophy and Women, Gender & Sexualities Studies at the Pennsylvania State University (USA). She completed her a master's degree in Philosophy at WITS and is also an Allan Gray Fellow. Her academic work has been published in peer-reviewed journals, both nationally and internationally. Her areas of focus include the critical philosophy of race, feminist philosophy, African philosophy and ethics. Prior to starting her PhD, she was an adjunct lecturer at WITS and at UniZulu and also worked as a junior consultant at REOS Southern Africa. Zinhle is also a certified 200hr Yoga instructor. When she's not philosophizing or on her yoga mat, she is either running on the road, cycling, or doing some kind of water sport. Lastly, she is committed to living a plant-based vegan lifestyle. She received the Mandela Rhodes Scholarship in 2016.

INSPIRING GREATNESS