

College of Health Sciences Dean: Teaching and Learning in Partnership with Wits Rural Health Advocacy Project

invites you to a workshop

INCORPORATING HEALTH ADVOCACY INTO HEALTH SCIENCES CURRICULUM

Thursday, 8th March 2018

9h00-13h00

Telematics Boardroom, Govan Mbeki Building, Westville Campus, UKZN

RSVP: Ms Melissa Manuel by 6th March manuelm@ukzn.ac.za

Programme

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER
9:00-9:30	Welcome, introductions and purpose of the workshop	Prof S Duma
9:30-10:30	What is advocacy? Why focus on advocacy in the curriculum now – contextual analysis & the Kern's model	Samantha Khan-Gillmore
10h30- 11h00	TEA
11h00-11h30	Incorporating Health Advocacy into Health Sciences Curriculum – A case study in Occupational Therapy	Chantal Christopher
11h30-12h00	Questions and Answers – Group Discussion	Facilitated by Dr Bernhard Gaede
12:00-12h30	Voice – Principles, strategies and tools for health care worker advocacy	Samantha Khan-Gillmore
12h30-13h00	Conclusion, Way forward	Prof S Duma
13h00 -13h30	LUNCH	